Sure....

Mahri was brought into my life by a man close to both of our hearts. On one of my trips to her home, Mahri and I discussed my illness. After listening to a couple of songs she had already written, I was amazed at how her words could reach in and touch my heart. I pride myself on being a man's man and keeping my heart as strong as possible.

Mahri wrote a song for me. I am a man with cancer, who lost his wife a few months ago in a car accident. I have a 3 1/2 beautiful daughter, who is my own personal angel. While questioning life, God and fighting to live, Mahri wrote a song for me. This song touched not only my heart but my soul. By listening to the words, I found a strength deep inside of myself that I never knew I had. A strength to fight to live, a strength to decide to live. Mahri's words gave me what I needed to continue my fight against cancer. Ever since she wrote my song for me and presented me with the disc, I have fought harder than ever.

I thank Mahri from the bottom of my heart. If I had listened to my Doctors and given up, I would not be here today to tell you how wonderful Mahri is. I would not be here to see my beautiful little girl get out of bed every morning. I would not be here to tuck her in at night. Mahri's words were so strong and so heart felt. Mahri gave me the will to live.

Mahri, I thank you
